SAGEPOINT APPOINTS NEW PRESIDENT AND CEO
Andrea Dwyer Appointed President and CEO of Sagepoint Senior Living Services

La Plata, MD (June 1, 2018) – The Board of Directors of Sagepoint Senior Living Services has appointed Andrea Dwyer President and Chief Executive Officer. Dwyer will be responsible for providing leadership, strategic direction and management to ensure the mission and core values of Sagepoint are operationalized.

"We are very excited that Andrea has joined the Sagepoint team," remarked Carolyn Core, Chair of Sagepoint Senior Living Services' Board of Directors. "Having conducted a nationwide search, we believe Andrea's extensive experience in senior living services combined with her significant career accomplishments, demeanor and enthusiasm will ensure Sagepoint's future growth and success."

"I am honored and excited to join the Sagepoint Senior Living Services community," said Dwyer. "I am very impressed by Sagepoint's commitment to their residents and believe we are uniquely positioned to continue to provide the highest quality of care and services to seniors and their families throughout Southern Maryland."

Dwyer brings to Sagepoint Senior Living Services 20 years of experience in long-term care. She has been licensed as a Nursing Home Administrator since 1999 and has held executive leadership positions in continuous care, rehabilitation, and assisted living communities. Most recently, Andrea has served as Sagepoint's Interim President, CEO and Licensed Nursing Home Administrator since January 2018. Dwyer earned her Master's in Business Administration from the University of Maryland and received her Bachelor of Arts in International Studies/Business from Towson University. Dwyer managed the organization successfully through the recent transition process including navigating Sagepoint's new Rehabilitation Center to its much-anticipated opening this week.
